Guest Speaker

Dr. Karen L. Rech, MD

Associate Professor of Pathology
Consultant, Division of Hematopathology
Department of Laboratory Medicine and Pathology Mayo Clinic, Rochester
Minnesota, USA

Dr. Karen Rech is an Associate Professor of Pathology and Consultant in the Division of Hematopathology at Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota, USA.

She received her MD from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, followed by a Anatomic/Clinical pathology residency and fellowships in Surgical Pathology and Hematopathology at the Mayo Clinic Graduate School of Medicine.

She serves as the Vice Chair of the Lymphoid Working Group and as a Medical Director of the Immunohistochemistry lab at the Mayo Clinic.

Inspired by a busy clinical practice, her research interests focus on novel diagnostic markers in lymphoma, amyloidosis, and histiocytic/dendritic cell neoplasms.

Her ongoing research focuses on the characterization of the phenotypic spectrum and genomic landscape of histiocytic/dendritic cell neoplasms, and she has authored several publications, including practical guidelines for diagnosis of histiocytic/dendritic cell neoplasms and the WHO book chapter on follicular dendritic cell sarcomas.

As a key member of the multidisciplinary Mayo Clinic-University of Alabama Birmingham Histiocytosis Working Group, she seeks to expand medical knowledge and improve the outcome of patients with Erdheim-Chester disease, Rosai-Dorfman disease, Langerhans cell histiocytosis and Malignant Histiocytosis.

Guest Speaker

Grace Juneau Whiting, J.D.

Chief Executive Officer
The Erdheim-Chester
Disease Global Alliance

Ms. Grace Juneau Whiting, J.D., has been a Chief Executive Officer for Erdheim-Chester Disease Global Alliance (ECDGA) since October 2023.

ECDGA is an independent non-profit organization dedicated to awareness, support, education, and research related to ECD.

Grace's background is as an advocate for person- and family-centered care, with subject-matter expertise in family caregiving, long-term care, health policy, aging, and disability.

Previously, she also served as the C.E.O. for the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) as well as the President and C.E.O. of the National Alliance for Caregiving (N.A.C.), and as Secretariat for the International Alliance of Carer Organizations (IACO).

Working with Global Genes and colleagues across the rare disease space, Grace led the first-ever policy study of rare disease caregivers, capturing perspectives from 1,400 friends and family members of people living with rare diseases across 400 conditions. Grace is a frequent public speaker on topics related to caring for older adults and people with disabilities, including keynote addresses at the N.I.H.'s Office of Rare Diseases and for major media, including The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, C-SPAN's Washington Journal, O Magazine, and Women's Health, among others.
